

1. The three viruses most commonly associated with human cancer are:

- A. HBV, HTLV-1, and EBV.
- B. HBV, HCV, and HPV.
- C. HPV, EBV, and HCV.
- D. HTLV-1, HCV, and VZV.

2. HBV and HCV are associated with:

A. liver cancer

B. cervical cancer

C. lung cancer

D. lymphoma.

3. Certain strains of HPV are associated with:

- A. liver cancer
- B. cervical cancer
- C. lung cancer
- D. lymphoma.