

HW5-2 Soln)

According to the third law, if A exerts a force on B, then B exerts a force on A that is equal in magnitude, opposite in direction, and of the same nature.

So, the alpha will exert a 0.5 pN force on the proton, also acting to repel it.