HW 1-5)

Consider a small object of mass m and charge q attached by a light insulating string to an infinite, vertical wall with uniform charge density σ. Find the angle the string will make with the wall when the object is in static equilibrium.