

5-1)

A proton traveling at 3000 m/s enters a region of uniform magnetic field of unknown strength, B , in a direction perpendicular to the field. It exits the region in the opposite direction. If the proton traveled a distance of 5 cm during this process, what is the magnetic field strength?

