

6-3)

A ball is thrown vertically into the air. When it is 15m above the ground, it is moving at 25 m/s upward. The ball's weight is 20N. Use the work-energy theorem to find

- a) the ball's speed just after launch.
- b) the maximum altitude reached.

Assume that the ball was released at ground level.